GURUGRAM, NOVEMBER 29

The police have arrested a techie for allegedly impersonating a candidate in the BSF recruitment exam after taking Rs 1.5 lakh from him. A BSF Vigilance Team nabbed him when he appeared for the examination.

According to the police, an examination was held on Sunday for Group-'C' posts of AAM (ASI) Avionics, AAM (ASI) Mechanical and ARM (ASI) Avionics in the BSF Air Wing at Lady Florence Public School, Bengumpur Khatola village. During the checking by the BSF Vigilance Team, Partik, a resident of Sarsod village in Hisar, was found appearing in the examination instead of the actual candidate, Kapil Kumar. —OC

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICES

ROHTAK, NOVEMBER 29

Many social outfits, charitable societies, medical professionals and political leaders came forward to provide free medical aid to protesting farmers when they camped at the Tikri border last year, but now only a few are left, who are still serving protesters.

So far, the team has treated around 14,000 farmers and provided them free medicines since last year.

Significantly, Dr Khalsa and Dr Dahiya also conduct free OPD on two days in a week at Kishan Pura in Rohtak city for the poor people.

"We set up a medical camp at Tikri on learning that many farmers are unhealthy and need medical aid on a daily basis. Our team contacted socially active people, who provided us free medicines throughout the year," said Dr Dahiya.

Dr Khalsa said a majority of patients coming to the camp were suffering from cough, cold, joint pains, back ache, abdominal pain, high blood pressure, diabetes, anxiety, blunt injuries, urinary problems and fever.

office if dues not paid: Farmers

KURUKSHETRA, NOVEMBER 29 The BKU (Charuni) has threatened to gherao the office of the Deputy Commissioner on December 2 if the pending payment of paddy farmers was not cleared by December 1.

The union today staged a dharna at the District Food and Supplies Controller (DFSC) office in Kurukshetra to mark their protest.

BKU (Charuni) spokesman said: "Over 6,000 farmers in the state have been awaiting dues even weeks after the procurement." DFSC KK Goyal said: "Dues are likely to be cleared in a day or two." —TNS
