PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New Delhi, 6 July

Alternative investment funds cannot convert their existing open-ended schemes to closed-ended and vice-versa, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi) said on Friday.

The clarifications have been given as part of an informal guidance sought by Singular India Opportunities Trust (SIOT), which is managed by Singular Capital India Advisors LLP, regarding certain aspects of AIF regulation.

SIOT is registered with Sebi as a category-3 AIF.

AIFs are funds established or incorporated in India for the purpose of pooling in capital from Indian and foreign investors for investing as per a pre-decided policy. The regulator has divided AIFs into three categories.

AIF includes venture capital funds, hedge funds, private equity funds, commodity funds, debt funds and infrastructure funds.

"There is no provision in the AIF regulations to convert
